

Pupil Council: Developing A Learning Journal we will use

What is a Learning Journal for?

Your Learning, Your Responsibility:

- Tracking Academic Progress
- Tracking Skills Development
- Notes on Learning Conversations

In the Learning Journal the plan is to include:

School information as always, PLUS:

- A Section for tracking progress in each subject
- Section for tracking skills in subjects and across learning
- Section for noting Achievements both in and out of school

Look at the examples given out. And answer the following questions on the flipchart paper;

What is good?

What is not?

What is missing?

Can we remove the 'homework diary' section?

Your feedback will be fully considered, teachers and parents will also be asked to contribute their views.
